PRESS RELEASE

US Government Supports Commercial Fair in Osh City

On November 23-26, 2011, the Association of Agri-businesses of Kyrgyzstan “Jer Azygy” will organize a commercial fair at the Kyrgyz National Drama Theatre in Osh city. Funded by the United States Agency for International Development (USAID), the Fair will be open from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., and admission is free of charge.

Over 30 companies, private entrepreneurs, agricultural producers and manufactures of household goods will participate in the commercial fair. By strengthening critical commercial linkages between the country’s entrepreneurs, this event will boost sales among the Osh business community and help deepen the region’s economic recovery following last year’s political and humanitarian crises.

This activity is one of many supported by the American people through USAID’s Office of Transition Initiatives (USAID/OTI). For more information about USAID programs, please visit our website at: <http://kyrgyzstan.usaid.gov/kyrgyzstan>.
